THE SOUTHERN REVIEW

INDEX TO VOLUMES 8-14

Explanatory Note

The TITLE INDEX beginning on page 1 lists alphabetically the title of each essay (entries are essays unless otherwise indicated), poem (pty), short story (ss), or review (rev) and supplies the name of the author, volume number, issue number, and page number. The AUTHOR INDEX (page 20) gives the same information but reverses the order by citing the author's name first.

The SUBJECT INDEX (page 37) is an index to essays and reviews. It lists each book reviewed under both the title of the book and the name of its author. In the case of essays, many of the entries are names, usually names of authors, and these have been set in capital letters to distinguish them from the authors of reviewed books. For example, the book Lancelot by Walker Percy is reviewed by Robert D. Daniel in an article entitled "Walker Percy's Lancelot: Secular Raving and Religious Silence." The subject entries for this review are:

Lancelot. Walker Percy. rev 14(1):186

and

Percy, Walker. Lancelot. rev 14(1):186

Percy is also the subject of an essay by Cleanth Brooks entitled "Walker Percy and Modern Gnosticism" and the subject entry reads as follows:

PERCY, WALKER. Walker Percy and Modern Gnosticism. Cleanth Brooks. 13(4):677

The first of the three numbers in each entry is the volume number. Volume 8 appeared in the year 1972, Volume 9 in 1973, Volume 10 in 1974, Volume 11 in 1975, Volume 12 in 1976, Volume 13 in 1977, and Volume 14 in 1978. The second number is the issue number. Number 1 is the Winter (January) issue; Number 2, Spring (April); Number 3, Summer (July); and Number 4, Autumn (October). The last number, of course, is the page number.
